BIO

Having joined her local charity in 2007 Caron qualified as an Independent Domestic Violence Advocate and has over 13 years experience supporting victims of domestic abuse.

Caron teaches professionals on all aspects of domestic abuse, took part in BBC documentary 'Behind Closed Doors' and speaks at public events to educate the public and improve the response to those reaching out for help.

Caron is a survivor of domestic abuse, is passionate about helping others and has set up her own Divorce and Separation Coaching business, accredited by Sara Davison, the UK's leading Divorce Coach, specialising in supporting people in abusive and controlling relationships. This now enables Caron to support clients from all over the UK on a bespoke basis. Caron helps clients work on strategies and solutions such as managing co-parenting after separation, conflict through family court and long-term recovery from domestic abuse.
