

Henry Elliston

CHARTERED FINANCIAL PLANNER

BIO

Henry is a Chartered Financial Planner, with 15 years' experience advising clients in the lead up to and reaching retirement. He enjoys helping his clients understand the value of their investments and pensions and then in assisting them to plan for, and envisage their future financial security.

As an Associate member of Resolution, he has been helping clients with the financial aspects of their divorce for a number of years, and has created imaginative solutions to often complex situations, especially in finding ways for one party to retain the family home or enhancing the value of the pension share that is awarded. He has also helped a number of couples with overseas assets come to a fair compromise over the split, whilst taking into account various foreign tax regimes.
