

Lucy Greenwood

PARTNER AT IFLG

BIO

Lucy Greenwood is a Partner at iFLG. She has a broad depth of experience and knowledge in resolving family issues for national and international families, for over 20 years.

Lucy regularly deals with complicated financial cases many of which have an international element. Lucy's cases, often high net worth, involve dealing with offshore trusts, corporate issues, tracing assets abroad, international enforcement issues and pension sharing. Lucy is a specialist in the drafting of pre-nuptial and post-nuptial agreements.

Many of the cases Lucy has handled have necessitated initial involvement of advice and sometimes the joinder of lawyers in other jurisdictions. Lucy is conscientious, meticulous and always ensures her clients are protected as much as possible from the rigors of litigation. Where a conciliatory approach is possible, Lucy will find it, but equally she has the knowledge and experience to advise when a court-based route is required. Lucy regularly writes for websites, legal journals and presents seminars and webinars for the legal profession. She gives lectures nationally and internationally and also comments
