BIO

Lucy Loizou is a Partner at iFLG. She undertakes complex financial disputes and financial provision for children and has acted for a number of high-profile individuals.

Some of Lucy's cases have involved securing emergency injunctions to protect assets from dissipation and when necessary without notice. Lucy advises clients with difficult corporate interests and in respect of awkward partnership issues and foreign trusts.

Lucy also specialises in assisting clients considering entering into co-habitation agreement or pre-marital agreements. She handles cohabitation disputes, de facto claims and civil partnership issues.

She regularly writes for various legal journals on topical aspects of family law. She is a well-known lecturer to the legal profession and very much in demand.

Lucy created and presents a fortnightly family law programme, live on London Greek Radio and previously hosted her own weekly family law show on Hellenic TV. She is a much in demand as a legal advisor in the Greek community. Lucy speaks Greek.

Lucy is described by Legal 500 as combining 'international knowledge of different laws with excellent client case' and 'always concise, thorough and accurate'.

In the 2020 edition she is listed as a 'stand out individual'
