BIO

Michael Allum is a Partner at iFLG. Michael works predominantly in the divorce, forum and finance team. He has a wide breadth of knowledge in all issues following the breakdown of a relationship. Much of Michael's work involves complex international issues and/or high net worth cases. He has a particular interest in jurisdictional issues and forum disputes.

Michael also undertakes cases involving financial provision in the English court following an overseas divorce (known as Part III) and obtaining English pension sharing orders when divorce and financial proceedings are taking place in another country.

He attends Court on a regular basis, both as an advocate and with Counsel.

Michael writes articles of current interest for the legal profession, has given lectures and presented many podcasts on topical legal issues. He also co-authored the firm's response to the Law Commission report into the enforcement of financial orders made within family proceedings.

In the Legal 500 UK Guide 2017 Michael was described as 'incredibly diligent and hardworking'.

Clients say that 'Michael Allum is brilliant, an old head on young shoulders with impressive client handling skills' and another says 'Michael Allum is a hardworking and intelligent lawyer' - Legal 500 UK Guide 2020
